

FIRE & ELECTRICAL PANEL MANUFACTURER SECURITY

Securing Life-Safety Systems. Protecting Critical Controls. Enabling OEM Integration.

Fire alarm panels, electrical distribution panels, life-safety control cabinets, and critical power enclosures form the backbone of building safety and operational continuity. These systems require secure, code-compliant access control that prevents tampering while allowing authorized service, inspection, and emergency response. The RA-Lock Group partners with fire and electrical panel manufacturers to deliver high-security mechanical and electronic locking solutions engineered for OEM integration, retrofit compatibility, and long-term system reliability.
